

Maude Dabbs Haas, 114 E. 57 St., New York City, studied at the Longy School of Music after leaving BMC, and continues her piano work privately in New York; married; (husband's name, Robert)

Martin Rudolph Haase, 637 Pickford St., Madison, Wisc., B.S.E., University of Michigan, yacht designer (and a student) Northwestern Yacht Service, Milwaukee.

Hannelore Hahn, Crestwood Hall, Whittier College, Whittier, California, is a student at Whittier.

James Hall, 5 Minetta St., New York City, got his B.A. at the University of California at Los Angeles. He is now writing book reviews and selling books; married, one child.

✓ Wilfrid G. Hamlin, 28 Jones St., New York City, got his B.A. from Wayne in 1947, and is now test administrator and research associate for Johnson O'Connor Research Foundation; married to Elizabeth Brett Hamlin, who teaches and keeps house.

John A. Harrington, Sheaff Lane, Whitmarsh, Pa., manufacturer of chain hoists; married to Elizabeth (Bobbitts) Hilliard, two children.

Margaret Mason Helburn, 989 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, Mass., married, four children; (husband's name, Willard)

George W. Hendrickson, 7522 Dominican St., New Orleans, is instructor in drama at Tulane University, and co-technical director of a little theatre group; married, one child.

Nell Goldsmith Heyns, 840 Ursuline St., New Orleans, married, two children; (husband's name, Hugo); served as a WAC during the war.

Fanny Hobart, 3901 Ave. S., Brooklyn, N. Y., continuing study of music at the Mannes Music School.

Edward North Jenks, Nod Hill, Wilton, Conn., manager, New York Times Index, married to Desiree Meylan, two children.

Betty Schmitt Jennerjahn, 8212 Rockway, Wauwatosa, Wisc., doing work with stained glass; married; (husband's name, Warren)

Doris M. Johnson, Dypvag, Norway, studying art at the University of Oslo.